

A Chapter Outing in November

The Chapter Outing Committee hosted the year's first event on November 9, 2017. It was a beautiful night for an excursion in the city of Wilmington! The evening began with 21 sorors and guests dining at Chelsea Tavern in downtown Wilmington. The committee selected Chelsea Tavern because of the good food and the restaurant's location (close proximity to the theater).

The sorors and their friends enjoyed dinner chatting and laughing in a pleasant environment. Upon completion of dinner, we all headed over to the Grand Opera House to attend the War concert. At the Grand Opera House, the dinner group was joined by approximately 20 or more sorors and guests. If you were not there, you missed an awesome concert by this 1970s band! The atmosphere in the Opera House was very warm and inviting. In fact, it took us back in time to the yesteryears; whereas, all who attended truly got into the music! We sang, bobbed our heads and danced to a live performance of their various hits such as "Why Can't We be Friends"; "The World is a Ghetto"; "The Cisco Kid"; "Low Rider"; "Summer" and many more!

The first outing of the year started with a blast because it was exciting to listen to the music of the past. It was quite evident that the sorors, along with their guests, thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Submitted by
Catherine Barnes
Renee Richardson
Co-chairs